Volunteer Opportunities for the 2018 Four Winds Invitational

Over 200 volunteers needed for Tournament on June 8 – 10

SOUTH BEND, Indiana (March 7, 2018) – The Pokagon Band of Potawatomi Indians and Four Winds® Casinos announced today they are seeking approximately 220 volunteers for the 2018 Four Winds Invitational. Volunteers are needed for morning, afternoon and evening shifts for all three days of the tournament, which begins Friday, June 8 through Sunday, June 10 at Blackthorn Golf Club in South Bend. The Four Winds Invitational is part of the Symetra® Tour – Road to the LPGA®.

Volunteers are needed to fill the following roles: caddies, cart and shuttle drivers, driving range assistants, food and beverage servers, marshals, spotters, scorers, and standard bearers. Volunteers are also needed for the Four Winds Invitational 5K race on Sunday morning, June 10.

All selected volunteers must be at least 16 years of age prior to June 1. They are required to pay a $25 fee by June 1, and will receive a tournament polo shirt, hat and one round of golf at Blackthorn Golf Club. Food and beverages will also be provided to volunteers on each day of service. Volunteers must attend a training session and complete nine total hours of service before receiving their free round of golf.

For questions regarding volunteer opportunities, contact Ben Mesaros of Blackthorn Golf Club at (574) 232-4653 or via email, ben@blackthorngolf.com. A volunteer application and other information is available at blackthorngolf.com.
